

Results will be available for collection from the Sixth Form Centre, from approximately 4pm on Friday 5 July, or will be available from the IB candidate website at 12:00 GMT on 6 July: candidates.ibo.org. You will need your personal code and PIN to access them. Please contact jhunt@tbgs.torbay.sch.uk before this date, if you have misplaced this information.

 K K D K K , congratulations! You will automatically get a confirmation letter in the post in due course and need do nothing else at this time.

 K D K K K K , then it is worth phoning to check that your first-choice course will not accept you; however, they will not receive your results for a few days and so may not be in a position to make a decision until the end of next week. Even then, most universities prefer to wait until the A-Level results come out before committing themselves. Please contact Mr Hunt, Mr Bainbridge or Dr Stites, if you need more advice. If you are happy with your insurance choice, you need do nothing: you will automatically get confirmation in the post in due course. See also ' ' below.

 Before lodging an appeal about your grade (Enquiry upon Results) you are advised to speak to your subject teacher(s) and/or Mr Hunt. To lodge an appeal, you need to complete the Enquiry upon Results form which is available from Mrs Slade. More information about the appeals process is available in the separate document: IB Post-Results Services.

 You may retake one or more subjects in November but please register by 15 July to avoid late-entry charges, using the retake form. Retakes can also be taken at a later stage.
